

TRELLIS

In the boundless universe of imagination, anything becomes possible. So, on OUR trellis grows not roses but diamonds. Why not? The fascination here is spring green against royal, so we do not recommend an alternative color. But if you have to, try white. Done on a 3" royal ball.

BUTTERCUP

In some lovely fantasy, you might gently push aside a few emerald blades of grass, and gaze at this buttercup, jeweled with dew. Done on a 3" yellow ball.

MARCH TO THE BEAT

"If a man loses pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured, or far away."

—Henry David Thoreau

Dare to be different! On this one, your drum selections are ecru, red, and pine green. Beat your drum loudly!!

HYACINTH

If we were asked to sum up our inspiration of Holland, it might be reduced to two words: "ingenuity" and "cleanliness." However, "beauty" would not be far behind...but that word could hardly describe the Keukenhoff Gardens. It has many acres of gardens in surprise shapes, where colors one would never think of combining, are so artfully arranged, one is left somewhat weak in dumbfound admiration.

For us, one bed of grape hyacinths going off into a seeming infinity, in the sunlight, seemed edged in silver. On a 3" purple ball. You might want to change the ball to anything that goes with purple and lavender, like gold, white, lavender, or if you're brave, why not the color of new grass, celery!

LET THEM EAT CAKE!

Marie Antoinette, daughter of Marie Theresa, archduchess of Austria, had a dark side to her but she still shined like gold. Here we capture the tragedy of her life amid the beauty of her reign as the wife of Louis XVI of France. Choose your cameo color and then choose your 3" ball color.

SEAHORSE UNTAMED REVISED

Who would want to tame a seahorse, anyway? How nice to think of them swimming away free—unharnessed—and glistening!! Done here on a 3" emerald ball but you can choose any of the alternative 20 colors we offer.

DYNASTY

A succession of kings, of the same line; the continued lordship of rulers. You might want to hand this one down to your successor. Done on a 2 1/2" white ball.

THE EMPRESS

German princess Alexandra, and Nicholas, the future tsar of Russia, fell deeply in love. After a whirlwind romance, the star-crossed lovers were joined in marriage. Their love for each other never faltered. Alexandra wrote in her diary, "Even more and more, stronger and deeper, grow my love and devotion, and my longing for you." Available on Black, Purple, Royal and Spring Green.
